What's Fresh with UDS?

October 2022 | Issue 13

Celebrating NDEAM

We are proud to support National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM). Held each October, NDEAM aims to educate about disability employment issues and celebrate the many and varied contributions of America's workers with disabilities.

UDS is proud to be part of the equity equation. Having a disability is not a barrier to obtaining meaningful employment. UDS Community Employment Services can help

Kaleidoscope: The Art & Language of Inclusion

We are so excited to announce Episode 2 of Kaleidoscope: The Art & Language of Inclusion podcast has officially launched! Listen now, or tune in on iHeart Radio, Spotify, or Apple Podcasts.

In this episode, we showcase a sampling of works from our most recent issues of Kaleidoscope, and a visit with some of the folks at the Just Imagine Gallery located in Canton. This podcast is sponsored by PNC: supporting early education, racial and social justice, and economic development through programming within the communities we serve.

Special Olympics State Games

Last month, our All-Star Training Club athletes competed in Cincinnati at the Special Olympics State Games. The golf tournament was held at Meadow Links and All-Star Training Club athlete Timmy captured the gold in the solo golfer category.

Father and son team Dan and Nick took home silver in the unified team category. All of our athletes did a great job and had a wonderful time! Learn more about our All-Star Training Club and how to get involved today.

The Fall 2022 issue of Aspire! is here and you won't want to miss it. This issue touches on all things UDS. You'll meet members of our Community Employment Services team, a member of the community named Scott who would not be where he is today without UDS Low Vision Services, and you'll be updated on all the fun outings/activities the individuals we serve have been enjoying. Join us for all the fall fun happening here at UDS.
